CAUSE

Violation of Supervised Release: On September 27, 2022, it was discovered Mr. Rublowitz opened five new lines of credit with the following companies: 1) Credit One Bank, in the amount of $800; 2) Capital One, in the amount of $850; 3) Synch/JC Penny, in the amount of $700; 4) First Franklin Financial, in the amount of $939; and 5) Capital One, in the amount of $1,000. Mr. Rublowitz informed the U.S. Probation Officer he thought the condition was no longer in affect since restitution was being collected. In addition, he explained that he began to experience hardship which resulted in opening the new accounts. The Probation Officer instructed Mr. Rublowitz to discontinue the use of the new lines of credit immediately and to pay off all remaining balances.
